

It's time to order your

St. Paul Sesquicentennial Commemorative Book

- ❖ 151 10X10 color pages
- ❖ Professionally printed & bound by Grandville Printing
- ❖ Pictorial history with detailed accounts of key events
- ❖ Personal accounts and narratives
- ❖ Pastor Biographies
- ❖ 150 Year Timeline
- ❖ "Then and Now"
- ❖ 100's of pictures
- ❖ And more!

$30* for a hard cover book.

$40* for a hard cover book
and a digital book on a USB.

The price covers the cost of professional printing, binding, etc. This is not a fundraiser, nor is anyone getting paid for working on the book.

Sample pages

Order forms and actual size sample pages are on the 150th table in the hall.

DEADLINE: OCT 13, 2019

Women Enjoying Literature and Laughter

Our next read involves the mystery of some harmless pranks. Will our main character find her new business partnership of sleuthing, filed by the Boston police as 'harmless'? Come join us for this book review of "Murder in the City of Liberty", written by author, Rachel McMillan. We meet Sunday, October 20, 3-5p at Marlee Stouffer's home. Snacks provided! You can purchase this book online or at Baker Book House for $5. The Kent District Library (very limited) or possibly MetCap associated with the library system carry this book. Questions, call Marlee at 616-250-1354